

March 2, 1984

LB 764, 981

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Is there further discussion on the bill? The motion is to advance the bill. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. We are voting on a motion to advance LB 764 from General File to Enrollment and Review for review. Please record your vote. Please record your vote on the advancement of LB 764. The motion is to advance LB 764. Please record your vote. The motion is the advancement of LB 764. The Clerk will record the vote. The Clerk will record.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to advance 764.

PRESIDENT: LB 764 is advanced. On behalf of Senator Martin Kahle the Chair would like to announce that he has guests under the south balcony this morning, Mrs. Ruth Haarberg and daughters Gretchen and Stephanie and their friend Laurie. They are from Arapahoe, Nebraska. We welcome you to the Legislature this morning. The next bill on consent calendar is LB 981.

CLERK: Mr. President, 981 offered by Education Committee. (Title read.) It was read on January 12, referred to the Education Committee, advanced to General File. I have Education Committee amendments.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Vickers, Chairman of the Education Committee.

SENATOR VICKERS: Mr. President, members, LB 981 is a fairly important bill but the committee amendments make the bill so that it is not as controversial as it was when it came before the committee. The committee amendments simply strike the section of the bill that changed the makeup of the Coordinating Commission, leaving the Coordinating Commission's makeup as it is right now. I would ask for the adoption of the committee amendments but I would also tell you that there will probably be some further discussion of the makeup of that commission later on, on Select File. But the committee amendments strike the section of the bill that